Accessories for a Globe Trotter

March 30, 2012

Your idea of taking a trip around the world is dining on Swedish meatballs, pad thai and enchiladas verde in the same week.

Your tax season budget may not allow for international jet setting, but you can make your home look like it does with imported and reclaimed pieces from The Wooden House. Mix and match eclectic finds like distressed wood chests, hand blown glass sculptures, grain sacks-turned-throw pillows, and vibrant lightweight Indian quilts hand-picked during the handsome owner's travels and well-priced at $125.

Let your home tell a tale of more than two cities.
